Body Glove is a brand that originally started with wetsuits and has expanded into a wide range of water sports gear and apparel, including swimwear, clothing, shoes, and accessories. Founded in 1953 by twin brothers Bill and Bob Meistrell, Body Glove has become synonymous with innovation and quality in the water sports industry. The Meistrell brothers were passionate about the ocean and surfing, which led them to develop and patent the first practical wetsuit, a significant innovation that has made water activities more comfortable and accessible. Over the years, Body Glove has continued to innovate by introducing new materials and designs to improve the performance and comfort of their products for var
